

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO MEET FILM FESTIVAL ARE NOW OPEN!

Communication addressed to all schools, of any order and grade

From 23rd JUNE until 15th SEPTEMBER 2014 you can participate to the MEET FILM FESTIVAL by sending a video you created: visit the website www.meetfilmfestival.eu where you can find the announcement with rules and regulations and the instructions to send us your video.

Participation in the festival is free of charge.

The MEET Festival is conceived as an innovative opportunity to meet and exchange for all audiovisual productions in the field of Education and Training in Europe and also host productions of independent filmmakers related to these issues. It promotes the diffusion of videos characterized by stylistic and formal originality.

In its competitive sections it shows and promotes the diffusion of films characterized by stylistic and formal originality.

The aims of the festival are:

- To facilitate a process of reflection and cultural production centered on annual themes indicated by the European Union (ex. 2013 European Year of citizens) and on Education and Training 2020 focal points;
 - To stimulate the development of skills related to creativity in the field of education and training which enable to develop specific language and narrative-expressive codes, in order to improve internal and external communication;
- To actively involve all the agents of education and training at European, national and local level, especially the Region where the festival takes place;
- To Provide a point of reference and chance of meeting and Exchange to all those participating or having participated in recent years to experiences of mobility and cooperation within the European Union programs also creating audio-visual products.
- to foster the engagement of the world of cinema to pursuit the objectives of the Festival, particularly the small studios and independent film-makers.

The Festival is the perfect place to share all your audiovisual products created during European projects, youth exchanges, training and so on.

It is a real opportunity to give visibility to all European projects already completed or ongoing and that often fail to find the right channels for dissemination and diffusion.

The festival will be held in Senigallia (Ancona, Italy), 5th -8th October 2014.

We are here waiting for you.
