EUROPEAN YEAR OF EDUCATION THROUGH SPORT 2004

Transnational Project
EDUCATION AND SPORT: VALUES WITHOUT LIMITS
European Competition

Call for the creation of an appropriate graphic symbol to represent the values of education and sport.

The University of Urbino "Carlo Bo", Faculty of Health and Physical Education, on occasion of the European Year of Education through sport (EYES 2004), within the framework of the transnational project "Education and Sport: values without limits", announces a competition for the creation of an appropriate symbol to graphically represent the concepts of Sport and Education.

Object of the competition:

The object of the competition is the creation of a symbol which graphically represents the concept of "Education and sport: values without limits". The symbol must be accompanied by the words "Education and sport: values without limits". The creations must be in colour, using any graphic technique desired, in A3 format and mounted on a light-weight, rigid support ( light-weight cardboard, plastic or other similar material)

Participation Rules:

The competition is open to junior high school, high school and university students as well as those attending higher-educational artistic institutions, resident in one of the European Union member states.

Participation can be individual or group, in which case the group must nominate one of its members as representative, communicating the representative's name to the organisation publishing the notice of competition.

All works must have the characteristics of being new and original -the author therefore, must guarantee that third parties may claim no rights to the work presented and that the organisation publishing the notice of competition will be free of onus, expenses and damages if condemned, through legal action taken against it, by third parties.

The works must bear a motto and must be anonymous. The same motto must also be written on the outside of a sealed envelope containing personal data and the application form (Attached Document A).

The work to be presented and the sealed envelope must be sent in a sealed, anonymous envelope bearing the wording "European Year of Education through Sport 2004 transnational project 'Education and Sport: values without limits'- Graphic Competition"- to: Facoltà di Scienze Motorie dell'Università degli Studi di Urbino "Carlo Bo", Via Muzio Oddi, n.14, 61029 Urbino (PU), Italia.

Works must reach the address indicated above on or before 2:00 p.m. June 10th 2004, under penalty of exclusion from the competition.

The winner maintains legal rights to the intellectual property of the work. The Faculty of Health and Physical Education of the University of Urbino “Carlo Bo” reserves the right to use the winning symbol, even if successively subjected to re-elaboration and reproduction, pledging to always mention the author’s name.

A special Commission, composed of five professionals of great renown nominated by the Dean of the Faculty of Health and Physical Education of the University of Urbino “Carlo Bo” and presided by the same without the right of vote, will evaluate the works submitted and will proclaim the winner.

The author of the symbol proclaimed winner will receive a prize of 1.000,00 (one-thousand) Euro gross.

The authors of the first three works classified will be rewarded with a trip to Brussels where their works will be presented to the Community Institutions. If a group wins, the Commission will cover only the nominated representative’s travel expenses.

The Faculty of Health and Physical Education of the University of Urbino reserves the right to organise an exposition of all presented work .

The organisational Secretariat of the Competition will communicate the outcome to the winner as well as the second and third classified by registered letter (the authors may receive information by directly contacting the organisational Secretariat of the Competition by phone +39 0722 351728).

Consigned material will not be returned by the office but can be reobtained by the participant at his/her own expense on or before September 30th 2004. The Faculty of Health and Physical Education reserves the right to conserve a copy of the works submitted.

Grounds for exclusion from the competition are: not respecting terms for the consignment of work; incomplete information filed on the application form; not respecting the requisites regarding the realisation of the work.

Jury members and their relatives or kindred to the third degree of descent are prohibited from participating in the Competition. Participation in the Competition implies the total acceptance of the given competition rules. The Tribunal of Urbino is competent to deal with any controversy.

Urbino,

Dean of the Faculty of Health and Physical Education
of the University of Urbino
Project Director
Prof. Vilberto Stocchi
