31 March 2011

Dear Queen Elizabeth,

we are Primary School IV class pupils;
we are nine years old and write you for many wishes.

Let your nephew William and The beautiful
Kate have a very lucky marriage!!!

We like your dresses and ever we cut out your photos from the magazines, when we paste up them on the poster of England.
We can only guess how much elegant you will be on that day!

We'll follow the ceremony right on TV just to see you!

Wee are yours fans!
Wee wish you health and joy!

Bye!

The Queen thanks you all so much for your letter which Her Majesty was very pleased to receive.

During this year of Royal Family celebrations, The Queen has received an overwhelming amount of mail and, although Her Majesty is unable to reply to you personally, you may like to have the enclosed information leaflets

The Queen would like you to know that your kind message about the Royal Wedding has given Her Majesty and her family great pleasure, and your good wishes for The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge are very much appreciated.
